Fountaintown Gas Scholarship

Robert Wortman, founder of Fountaintown Gas Co., Inc., sees post-secondary education as an essential element of attaining the skills needed for individuals to stimulate innovation and provide leadership for successful business. With this in mind, Mr. Wortman created the Fountaintown Gas Co., Inc. Scholarship in 2010. The scholarship provides education benefit to students, served by the Gas Company, who plan to pursue an accredited certification or degree at a post-secondary institution. This scholarship is to be awarded to an individual, who with the benefit of additional education will impact the community in a positive way.

The Wortman family considers this scholarship an investment in the future of our communities.
